ENERGY COMMITTEE CORNER:

TIPS FOR CONSERVING ENERGY THIS SUMMER:

- Do your laundry efficiently by using the warm or cold water setting for washing your clothes. Always use cold water to rinse clothes.
- Line dry clothes whenever you can.
- When you need to use the dryer, run full loads, use the moisture-sensing setting, and clean the clothes dryer lint trap after each use.
- Conserve energy by running your dishwasher only when it is fully loaded, and turn off the dry cycle and air dry dishes instead.

Dorset Theatre Festival Summer Lineup!

RED: June 18th to July 6th

“Red captures the dynamic relationship between an artist and his creations” - New York Times. Six Time Tony Award Winning play about famed artist Mark Rothko, starring Tim Daly (Wings, Private Practice). Under the watchful gaze of his seemingly naïve young assistance, Red chronicles artist Mark Rothko as he struggles to complete a lucrative set of murals for Manhattan’s Four Seasons restaurant.

Out of the City by Leslie Ayzavian

OUT OF THE CITY: July 10th to July 19th

“a sweetly comic play...well-made and carefully observed character portraits about late-life identity” - New York Times. World Premiere Play by Leslie Ayzavian. A fun and provocative summer comedy. Two couples take a weekend in the country to celebrate a 60th birthday. A small thing occurs and everything shifts, becoming horizontal!

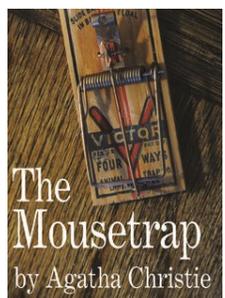

ALL IN THE TIMING, Six One-Act Comedies: July 24th to August 9th

ALL IN THE TIMING by David Ives

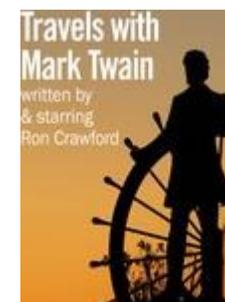

“All in the Timing is by a master of fun. David Ives spins hilarity out of words.” - New York Times. 20th Anniversary revival. This critically acclaimed, award-winning evening of six short comedies by Tony award winning playwright David Ives, form an evening of wit, intellect, satire and just plain fun! A hilarious sextet that uses brilliant language and wordplay to investigate for audiences of all ages the classic existentialist questions of life and the complications involved in romantic relationships.

THE MOUSETRAP: August 14th to August 30th

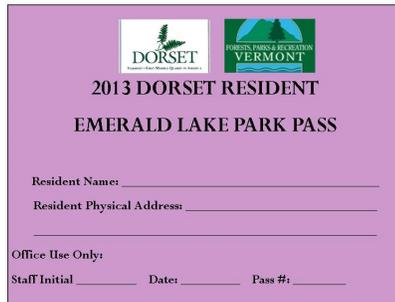

“Blood, gore, black humor, circuitous chatter...the play is substantial and the characters not just cardboard cut-outs. It’s wonderfully structured—up there with A Midsummer Night’s Dream” - The Guardian. 60th Anniversary revival of the classic by the master of mystery, Agatha Christie. The world’s longest running play—murder mystery at its best. A homicidal maniac terrorizes a group of snowbound guests to the refrain of “Three Blind Mice”.

TRAVELS WITH MARK TWAIN: September 18th to September 20th

Created and performed by Tony Award-winning actor Ron Crawford. Crawford’s riveting and funny one-man show re-creates Twain’s lectures from a hundred years ago, his adventures as a steamboat pilot on the Mississippi, his mining days out west, the Hawaiian Islands, and his first tour of Europe along with his caustic, humorous observations (and a few tall stories). Ron enacts selections from classics including Tom Sawyer and Adam and Eve.

The Dorset Marble House Project:

Marble House Project is a sustainable community that nurtures the imaginative spirit. Through artist residencies, workshops and permaculture principles, Marble House Project promotes an innovative atmosphere and exchange of ideas. Inspiration, contemplation and creativity are the hallmarks of our program.

The Manley-Lefevre House, on the National Register of Historic Places, was built in the Federal style in approximately 1815. Its formal gardens were designed in the Italianate style by Charles Downing Lay. The stone mansion will house the artists and the outbuildings on the surrounding property will hold studios. Currently, we have a completed writers studio, four art studios, a movement studio and a composing studio that will be completed in May 2014. A historic barn moved from Waterville, Vermont has been restored and will be used for event space and workshops. The property also has two stone quarries, hiking trails and meadows on over 38 acres of land in Dorset.
